The people in Big Tech are certifiable.

[redacted] google.com Sep 28, 2016

In the women's bathroom just now, a Googler was changing her baby girl's diaper when another Googler came in and said to the baby, "Oh look at you with those big eyes! That must be why all the guys like you! You're such a flirt!"

I quietly pointed out to the second person that it's inappropriate to sexualize an infant, and that her comments reinforced sexist and heterosexist norms.

I'm sharing this because it was so blatant, because it happened at Google and involved only Googlers (except for the baby), and as a reminder that bias is pervasive in our culture.

Prohibited persons [edit]

The Gun Control Act of 1968 was enhanced in 1993 with the passage of the Brady Handgun Violence Prevention Act. The Brady Act created a background check system which required licensed sellers to inspect the criminal history background of prospective gun purchasers, and the Brady Act created a list of categories of individuals to whom the sale of firearms is prohibited. As quoted from 18 U.S.C. 922 (d)[2]:

> It shall be unlawful for any person to sell or otherwise dispose of any firearm or ammunition to any person knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that such person— (1) is under indictment for, or has been convicted in any court of, a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year; (2) is a fugitive from justice; (3) is an unlawful user of or addicted to any controlled substance (as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 802)); (4) has been adjudicated as a mental defective or has been committed to any mental institution; (5) who, being an alien— (A) is illegally or unlawfully in the United States; or (B) except as provided in subsection (y)(2), has been admitted to the United States under a nonimmigrant visa (as that term is defined in section 101(a)(26) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1101 (a)(26))); (6) who [2] has been discharged from the Armed Forces under dishonorable conditions; (7) who,
